What is the Prostate?

The prostate is a small gland that sits just under the bladder in men. With increasing age, this gland can have a natural tendency to swell, giving rise to a condition known as Benign Prostatic Hypertrophy (BPH) or an enlarged prostate. It is a common problem affecting many men over fifty, possibly giving rise to symptoms such as:

- The need to urinate frequently – especially at night
- Weak or interrupted urine flow
- Feeling you can't empty your bladder completely

What should you do next?

If you have ticked two or more of the boxes you should see your doctor for advice. If your doctor diagnoses an enlarged prostate he will discuss treatment options with you.
